

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

Renmin Pathway to Melbourne Program 2019

---

Associate Professor Kate MacNeill
Director, GSHSS

Melbourne city

Parkville Campus

- Our main campus is in Parkville, only a few minutes from the very centre of Melbourne
- Lots of cafes, galleries, a theatre, banks, bookshops, food outlets and two gyms are located on campus
- We have almost 60,000 students
- 28% are international students from over 120 countries

Arts West

Arts West is the Faculty of Arts' principal teaching building

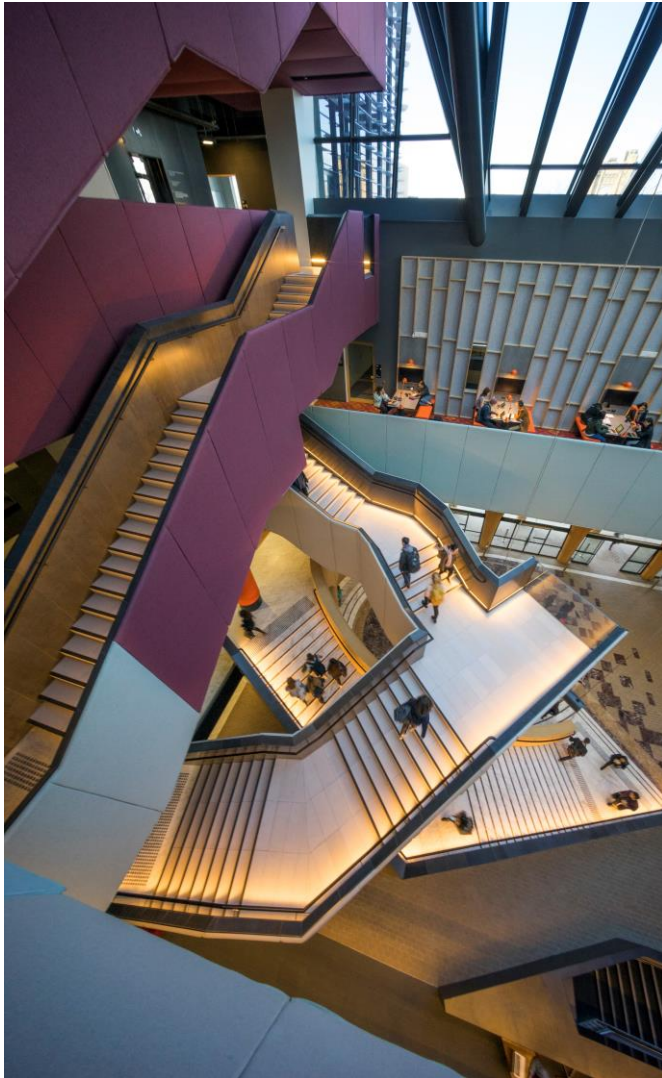

Arts West features object-based learning laboratories, integrated displays and a digital studio, as well as facilities for collaborative and project based learning, interactive learning (including a cinema-quality interactive theatre), a media laboratory, and lecture and discursive spaces.

Arts West interior

Accommodation options

- 11 residential colleges - you'll have your own room, shared bathroom, internet access, all meals and access to facilities including college gyms, common rooms, academic centres and tutors
- Other housing options include student apartments, share housing or homestay
- The University's Student Housing provides support and information about the types of housing available
- Make sure you choose housing that is appropriate to your needs and your budget

Residential Colleges

Student Apartments

Cost of living

Weekly average cost for each item	AUD	CNY
Rent (student apartment)	$300 – 350	1,480 – 1,725
Rent (share house)	$200 - 250	986 – 1,233
Lunch bought at University	$5-10	25 - 50
Weekly groceries per person	$40-70	197 - 345
Mobile phone (pre-paid)	$10 ($30/40 per month)	50 (148/197 per month)
Dinner out with friends (per person)	$10 - 35	50 - 173
Movie ticket	$13-17	64 - 84
Public transport (2 trips per week day on tram, bus or train)	$35	173
Bills (electricity/gas/internet etc)	$30-45 ($100 – 150 per month)	148 – 222 (494 – 740 per month)

Graduate School's Vision

- Integrate the arts and humanities into the leadership of contemporary society
- Develop ethical leaders with the knowledge, professional skills and passion to make a positive contribution
- Provide a home for research excellence

The Pathway to Melbourne program

The Faculty of Arts is pleased to work with four Schools at Renmin on the Pathway to Melbourne Program.

The program is available for students who have completed, or are in the process of completing, a Masters in their School at Renmin.

Students will be eligible to apply for entry into an approved Masters by Coursework program. Successful applicants will receive 100 credit points toward the University of Melbourne's 200 point program.

Students will either complete:

- 2 years at Renmin, followed by 1 year at Melbourne, or
- 1 year at Renmin, 1 year at Melbourne and 1 year at Renmin

Benefits of the program

A competitive advantage

Complete two separate degrees and receive two qualifications from two world-class institutions.

Academic expertise and professional learning

Study with academics who are experts in their field of study and develop a cross-cultural understanding of the teaching and learning expectations.

A unique international learning experience

Build relationships with colleagues across two programs and create wider personal and professional networks, and global connections.

Approved programs for Renmin students

Renmin School of Education

School of Education students studying the Master of Education can apply for the following programs in the Faculty of Arts:

Master of Public Policy and Management

EMA (Executive Master of Arts)

Approved programs for Renmin students

Renmin School of Public Administration and Policy

Students studying the Master of Public Administration, with a major stream in one of: Public Administration, Public Finance and Public Policy, Public Organization and Human Resources, Urban Planning, Social Healthcare System Administration, Social Security, Labor Economics or Land Resources and Management can apply for:

Master of Public Policy and Management

Students studying the Master of Public Administration, with a major stream in one of: Social Healthcare System Administration, Social Security, Labor Economics, Public Administration or Public Finance and Public Policy can apply for:

Master of Social Policy

Students studying the Master of Public Administration (Professional) can apply for:

Master of Public Administration

Master of Public Policy and Management

Approved programs for Renmin students

Renmin School of Sociology and Population Studies

Students studying the Master of Theoretical Economics, Population, Resources and Environment Economics, the Master of Sociology in the Demography, Sociology, Gerontics, Anthropology or Folklore streams, the Master of Public Administration in the Social Medicine stream or Master of Social Work (Professional Masters) can apply for:

Master of Public Policy and Management

Students studying the Master of Theoretical Economics, Population, Resources and Environment Economics, the Master of Sociology in the Demography, Sociology, Gerontics or Anthropology streams, the Master of Public Administration in the Social Medicine stream or Master of Social Work (Professional Masters) can apply for:

Master of Social Policy

Approved programs for Renmin students

Renmin School of International Studies

Students studying the Master of Law, with a major or stream in one of: International Relations, International Politics, International Political Economy, Scientific Socialism and International Communist Movement, World Economy, Diplomacy, Political Science, Chinese Politics or Chinese and Foreign Politics can apply for:

Master of Public Policy and Management

Master of Development Studies

Students studying the Master of Law, with a major or stream in one of: International Relations or International Politics can apply for:

Master of International Relations

Executive Master of Arts

Designed to build your leadership and management capacity across a range of professions.

Focus

- Leadership and Management
- Professional Communication
- Project Management

Job Outcomes

- Business analyst
- Communications manager
- Foreign affairs and trade officer
- Management consultant
- Policy and planning manager

Alumni Spotlight

“You can design a good portion of the degree yourself and I really made the most of that opportunity. It’s like a ‘design your own journey’ approach.”

Marie-Louise Schega

Fundraising and Communications Officer, Pollinate Energy

Master of International Relations

Focus

- Acquire deep knowledge of key developments within international relations, as well as the roles of the United States, China, the European Union, and the United Nations.
- Study contemporary issues including international politics of climate change, nuclear weapons, genocide, human rights, globalisation, corruption, international trade, and women in global politics

Job Outcomes

- International politics
- Global business
- Humanitarian work
- Policy making and management
- NGOs and the non-profit sector
- Global communications

Alumni spotlight

“I chose to study Master of International Relations because of the number and diversity of elective subjects available when compared to alternative universities, especially regarding Asian countries and issues.”

Daniel Ginger
Consultant (Asia specialist), KPMG

Master of Social Policy

Focus

Explore key areas of contemporary social policy including governance, inclusion and exclusion, social capital, and globalisation.

Job Outcomes

Community, state and national government

Policy design

Social administration and welfare work

Policy analysis

Management

Alumni Spotlight

“I chose to study the Master of Social Policy because I wanted to work more closely with education. I thoroughly enjoy the atmosphere and diversity of knowledge present between the students and the lecturers.”

Mishma Kumar

Senior Alcohol and Other Drugs Clinician, Odyssea House

Master of Development Studies

Program Focus:

- Health and development
- Environmental sustainability
- Migration
- Gender
- Resource management

Job Outcomes:

- Policy Analyst
- Program Coordinator
- Monitoring Officer
- Policy Officer

Alumni Spotlight

“My fellow classmates were a real highlight of the program. It’s such an international group of people, they really broadened my understanding of how people around the world are engaging with the issues surrounding development.”

Bronwyn Tilbury

Senior Program Manager, International Women’s Development Agency (IWDA)

Master of Public Policy and Management

Designed for current and aspiring public, private and community sector leaders and managers, who seek to develop their public policy expertise.

Use the theoretical and analytical perspectives to generate understandings of the institutions, processes and practices of contemporary government and policy.

Job outcomes

- Senior policy and arts officer
- Manager of policy and international relations
- Policy and planning manager
- Investment advisor for government
- Policy analyst
- Government communications advisor

Alumni Spotlight

“The degree gave me an opportunity to extensively research several public policy issues that were close to my heart and sharpened my writing and analytical skills.”

Chirag Agarwal
Senior Consultant, KPMG

Entry requirements

- Be enrolled in an approved Masters program at Renmin AND
- By the time of commencement of the Melbourne Masters program, have completed at least one year of your approved Masters program at Renmin AND
- Have previously completed an undergraduate degree offered through Renmin or another Chinese 985 or 211 University and received an overall Graded Point Average (GPA) of at least 75% (a GPA of at least 80% from a non-211 university may also be considered); AND
- Meet English language requirements at Melbourne: an IELTS of at least 6.5, with no band less than 6, is currently required for all Melbourne Masters programs available through the agreement.
- If applying for the Master of Public Administration, please note that at least 3 years of documented relevant work experience is additionally required

Scholarships for Renmin students

Dean's Scholarships:

- 25% and 50% fee remission discounts, awarded to high-achieving students, based on academic merit

Scholarship application process:

- All students who apply for a master's program through the joint-degree procedures will be automatically considered for a scholarship
- There is no separate scholarship application form
- Scholarships are awarded based on academic merit
- Scholarships are not able to be deferred

How to apply

1. Visit <http://arts.unimelb.edu.au/graduate-studies/coursework/admissions/renmin-university-pathway-melbourne> and download the 'how to apply' and 'application cover' documents
2. Complete the application cover letter – this must be submitted with your e-application
3. Make sure you meet the entry requirements
4. Gather the required supporting documentation
5. Complete the online application at <http://futurestudents.unimelb.edu.au/admissions/applications/online-application-info>
6. When you get to the section that asks for you to pay the application fee, send an email to the Faculty of Arts arts-graduateenquiries@unimelb.edu.au with your application ID number and application cover letter – Maria will arrange the application fee waiver, this takes 5 working days. DO NOT pay the application fee as it cannot be refunded once processed

NOTE: Applications take approximately 8 weeks to be assessed

Want to know more?

Join us online in late October for a student Q&A webinar where you will be able to ask questions LIVE to Renmin students currently studying at Melbourne.

Your school coordinators will send you more information on this event soon.

Student Profile – Xuemeng Wang

Renmin student currently studying the Master of Public Policy and Management “Studying here has really broadened my horizon and cultivated my critical thinking. It did take me some time to be familiar with the environment and the lifestyle. Thanks to my new friends here, I can quickly catch the rhythm of life!”

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

Thank you

---

Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences
Faculty of Arts

